- Each public utility known to have any of the following which may be affected:
  - Installations
  - Equipment
  - Easements or franchise rights
- MDOT and MDNR if any of the affected plat borders or includes a state highway or federal aid road

Sec. 224a - Joinder of Parties (cont.)

- MDNR (and township if the plat is located within a township) if the requested relief will result in the vacation of a public road bordering, crossing, lying adjacent to or ending at a lake or general course of a stream which would result in the loss of public access to the water body.

    - Register of Deeds (original for recording)
    - Municipal Clerk
    - County Treasurer
    - County Road Commissioner

Common Amended Plat Problems

- Common issues found when reviewing amended plats:
  - Easements of Record:
    - All recorded easements are required to be shown, labeled and located by dimension on an amended plat pursuant to the administrative rules 2008 MR10, R 560.112(2)(ee).
    - Certain easement documents may create blanket type easements or may not sufficiently describe in detail the area in the amended plat encumbered by said easement. In this case, an easement of this type will either need to be released in its entirety or partially released to only the area required by the grantee for its purpose and described in a manner which can be properly depicted and located by dimension on the amended plat.

- Easements of Record:
  - Surveyor neglects to provide copies of all easements of record encumbering the land in the proposed plat.
  - Record easement search and surveyors statement of record search not provided.
  - Easements not properly shown, labeled and located by dimension on plat drawing.

Problems with easements can be avoided if the easements encumbering the land in the plat are identified up front prior to the entry of the final Judgment ordering the amended plat. If found early, many issues which can cause delay in the amended plat may be resolved.

- Access pursuant to MCL 560.186(1)(e)

  Each lot and outlot shown on a plat shall have direct access to a platted road or assured permanent access in accordance with a local subdivision control ordinance or a zoning ordinance with subdivision control provisions.

  Problems with access may occur if a portion of a platted road is vacated and the plat revised resulting in other lots or unplatted lands being isolated. All surrounding lands should be considered when seeking to vacate, correct or revise a plat so that possible isolation issues can be identified and addressed.

- Title Work

  Problems and delays may arise where upon filing of the final amended plat, portions of the lots ordered to be made by the Judgment are encumbered by a recorded road right of way. These right of way areas are required to be shown as areas separate from lots (MCL 560.135 and 137), thus requiring the Judgment to be amended to confirm this road right of way over the portion of the amended plat which it lies. A thorough review of the title of the land in the amended plat performed prior to the filing of the final judgment would reflect these encumbrances so that they can be addressed prior to the filing of the final Judgment and making of the final amended plat.

- Old Judgments Amending Plats

  Occasionally it is brought to our attention that an old order exists where an amended plat was ordered but no amended plat made as a result. These old orders, unless proven otherwise either by language in the judgment or other legal means, have been found to still have standing and be in affect, and an amended plat may be made to fulfill the portion of the judgment ordering the amended plat.
